

A special limited offer for Art Nomad clients

If you've ever dreamt* of owning a Brett Whiteley here is your chance.

For the first time ever, Digital Art Directory, in collaboration with Wendy Whiteley and the Brett Whiteley Estate, have produced three Brett Whiteley paintings as limited edition fine art reproduction giclee prints.

These fine art reproduction giclee prints are a limited edition of 250 and each one is numbered in the bottom left hand corner.

For a limited time we have a small number of complete sets available for you to purchase from the first release of only 125.

They can be viewed by appointment at Art Nomad in Melbourne or in Sydney on the weekends at The Brett Whiteley Studio in Surry Hills.

They are special because ...

Each one has been painstakingly matched to the original artwork and carries a blind embossment made from an original Brett Whiteley stamp on the bottom left hand corner. Also, on the bottom left is the Brett Whiteley Estate embossment. A Digital Art Directory embossment is on the bottom right.

They are printed on beautiful 300 gsm artist watercolour paper with fade resistant pigment inks, produced individually - they are hand finished.

Each fine art reproduction sold has a royalty paid to the Brett Whiteley Foundation to assist in the running of the Brett Whiteley Studio.

Background ...

Brett Lichtenstein and Melissa Lock founded Digital Art Directory the publishers of these limited editions in 1999. They work directly with some of Australia's best known artists and estates; Brett Whiteley, Jeffrey Smart, John Olsen, Tim Storrier, Lin Onus and Howard Arkley.

Brett Lichtenstein is well known in the Australian fine art industry for his hand crafted water-gilded frames. He worked closely with Brett Whiteley for 16 years and has also worked for many famous Australian artists, private & public galleries and major art collections around Australia and overseas.
